20/20 - Fourth Quarter, 1998

Friday, October 2, 1998

"A FLIGHT FROM HELL" - Connie Chung reports on the story of Richard and Karen Thorne, an Arizona couple accused of abusing their newly adopted daughters on a flight home from Russia, right in front of other passengers. Shortly after arriving home, the Thornes were arrested and the girls taken away. Was this a simple case of child abuse? Or was this couple unfairly persecuted? RUSSIAN ADOPTION (Producer - Melissa Cornick, PA - Jennifer Fukui, PA - Myrna Toledo)

"SEX, LIES, & VIDEOTAPE" - How far would you go to catch your wife with another man? Keith Martin of Clifton, VA, hid a tiny camera inside his wife's TV set. You won't believe what he saw...and neither did he? Now, as Deborah Roberts reports, he's suing the man that betrayed his trust. SEX, LIES, & VIDEOTAPE (Producer - Karen Saunders, PA - Michelle Spahn)

Sunday, October 4, 1998

"THE MIRACLE OF AUDREY" - This year, thousands of the faithful, mostly Catholics, have flocked in a football stadium in Worcester, Mass., to pray for Audrey Santo, a girl in a coma-like state for the past 11 years. To many, she is considered a miracle worker, who has the power to heal the sick. Is Audrey a messenger of God or is this situation a hoax to exploit a sick, innocent girl? Correspondent Lynn Sherr examines the mysterious surroundings of a 14-year old bedridden girl who has received world-wide attention and baffled experts. MIRACLE GIRL (Producers - Alan B. Goldberg, Nancy Kramer, PA'S - Erin Biddle, Kate Sheekey)

"SLIP & SUE" - Las Vegas casino operators are spending millions of dollars on hi-tech surveillance equipment. These security systems are installed not only to deter crimes such as robbery and assault; but to prevent bogus lawsuits from individuals, who pretend to "slip and fall" on casino property, and later sue for outrageous sums. ABC News "20/20's" Bill Ritter reports on "slip and fall," and how casinos are fighting back. CASINO SLIP AND FALL (Producer - Barb Koster, PA - Minda Allarde)

Wednesday, October 7, 1998

"BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE" - When a child threatens to kill his mother is the youngster just acting as a "little monster" or is the incident much more disturbing? In her first report for the new edition of ABC News "20/20," co-anchor Diane Sawyer examines the threat posed by children who suffer from severe anger control problems; and speaks to experts on what can be done to prevent such nightmare scenarios as Jonesboro, Ark. or Pearl, Miss. JUVENILES (2 PARTS) (Producer - Robbie Gordon, AP - Sarah Walker)

"THINK AGAIN" - Whenever people buy consumer electronics or major appliances, the salesmen aggressively promote extended warranties, and the customer often accepts —an expensive choice. Are such warranties worth the cost? EXTENDED WARRANTIES (Producer - Glenn Ruppel, AP - Angela Chambers)

"UNDER YOUR SKIN" - It's well-known that too much exposure to the sun can cause long-term damage to your skin. But how can you tell if you're spending too much time in the sun? Correspondent Sylvia Chase examines a new camera that can show how your skin will look years into the future. UV DETECT (Producer-Barb Koster, PA - Marni Harriman)

Friday, October 9, 1998

"SAFE SEX AND SENIORS" - As the population of people with AIDS expands to include those of all races, genders and sexual orientations, AIDS educators and health care professionals are working hard to get the "safer sex" message out. But as Lynn Sherr reports, there may be a forgotten group that is becoming more and more vulnerable to HIV infection: People over fifty. HIV AND OLDER WOMEN (Producer - Alice Pifer, AP - Christina Romano)

"SILENCE OF THE LAMBS" - Tom Jarriel speaks to two female investigators whose work assignment echoed the blockbuster film, "Silence of the Lambs." In order to obtain crucial information on two unsolved murders, they had to face a serial killer who insisted on speaking only to attractive female detectives. SILENCE OF THE LAMBS (Producer - Michael Pressman, PA - Kate Sheekey)

"THE SHAPE OF YOUR MARRIAGE" - Bill Ritter speaks to couples whose marriages have suffered after one of them has gained weight. FAT IN YOUR MARRIAGE (Producer - Lynn Redmond, PA - Michelle Spahn)

Sunday, October 11, 1998

"THE MAN WHO COULDN'T REMEMBER" - Carl Brodnick says he woke up one day in a ditch in Wyoming with no memory of who he was or how he got there. Now reunited with his family after four years as a man without an identity or a past, he is wanted by Indianapolis detectives on charges of six counts of theft they say he committed shortly before his alleged memory loss. Is Mr. Brodnick an amnesiac, or merely a clever criminal? Lynn Sherr reports on ABC News "20/20 Sunday." AMNESIA MAN (2 PARTS) (Producer - Sam Fine, AP - Reid Orvedahl)

"20/20 LAB" - Do you decide who is beautiful by the symmetry of someone's face? Cynthia McFadden with how we decide who is beautiful to us and who is not. THE POWER OF BEAUTY/HUNKY BEAUTY (Producer - Kira Kay)

"BACK ON THE TRACK" - Perri Peltz profiles Terri O'Connell who until a few years ago was known as up and coming young race car driver J.T. Hayes. Born male but wishing she were female, Terri had sex reassignment surgery in 1992. Although she gave up her dream of professional racing after the surgery, she is now determined to return to the sport, albeit with a different gender. Ms. Peltz reports that she is now seeking sponsors and dreams of someday racing in the Indianapolis 500. RACE CAR DRIVER (Producer - Judy Tygard, PA - Brian Hale)

Wednesday, October 14, 1998

"A NIGHT OF TERROR" - John Quinones reports on the brutal murder of gay University of Wyoming student Matthew Shepard. The 21-year-old died while on life support five days after he was found pistol-whipped and lashed to a fence post in an attack denounced nationwide as a hate crime. In a "20/20" exclusive, Mr. Quinones speaks to student Kristen Leann Price, 18, who was charged as an accessory to the murder and is talking for the first time. He also speaks to Bill McKinney, the father of one of the defendants, and Matt Galloway, the bartender who may have been the last to see Shepard before the attack. WYOMING (Producer - Michael Bicks, AP - Brian Hyland, PA - Marni Harriman)

"A POLICY FOR PROFIT" - Allstate Insurance has made billions of dollars selling insurance with its famous slogan, "You're in good hands with Allstate." But Brian Ross reports on allegations that the insurance giant played hardball with desperate homeowners after a Los Angeles earthquake four years ago, relying on questionable experts and falsified reports and shortchanging policy holders, perhaps for as much as millions of dollars. INSURANCE (Producer - Mathew Karatz,)

"SEPARATED AT BIRTH" - Bob Brown profiles identical twins, Stephanie Curry and Marti Botsch, who only recently learned of each other's existence. Separated at birth when their unwed teen-aged mother put them up for adoption, they say they always felt something was missing from their lives. With video of their momentous first meeting, Mr. Brown examines how the two are remarkably alike despite two different upbringings. TWINS (Producer - Steve Schnee, Claudette Caravaggi)

Friday, October 16, 1998

"SUICIDE BY COP" - When Las Vegas police officers were forced to shoot a threatening assailant, they never suspected that they were actually acting on the wishes of a suicidal man. Chris Wallace reports on a little known phenomenon that is shattering the lives of police officers who say they were goaded into killing those who wanted to die but couldn't pull the trigger themselves. SUICIDE BY COP (Producer - Lynn Redmond, PA - Susannah Shipman)

"THE RUNDOWN ON BATTERIES" - Arnold Diaz looks at competing battery brands and investigates which are the best value. BATTERIES (Producer - Glann Ruppel, PA - Jean Alter)

"THE HANDS OF FATE" - Bill Ritter reports on the sometimes dangerous act of "moshing" which is gaining in popularity with teens at rock concerts. Six kids reportedly have died worldwide and thousands are injured every year from the practice, which consists of diving off the stage onto the crowd and "surfing" over the heads of the spectators. Should concert security be doing more to prevent what many kids say is all in good fun? MOSHING (Producer - Catherine Upin, PA - Brian Hale)

"GIVE ME A BREAK" - Most people have no problem with companies registering their names as trademarks. But what about when big corporations try to keep a lock on a common word in everyday use, and force small businesses to make costly changes to their names? John Stossel says, "Give Me a Break!" G.M.A.B./POLO (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

Sunday, October 18, 1998 One Hour Special

"THE TRAGEDY OF JONESTOWN" - On November 18, 1978, the world reacted in horror at the news that over 900 Americans had taken their own lives in the single largest mass suicide modern history. On the eve of the twentieth anniversary of this tragedy, ABC News Forrest Sawyer examines the strange story of Jonestown. In a "20/20" exclusive, he journeys to Guyana with two of Reverend Jim Jones' sons, who are returning to the scene for the first time since it happened. JONESTOWN (Producer - Deanna Lee, PA'S - Courtney Bullock, Grace Huang)

Wednesday, October 21, 1998

"A TWO TIME WIDOW" - After Terri Gilbert shot her husband three times and killed him, she said she had thought he was an intruder and acted in self defense, and a jury believed her. But the judge did not allow them to hear that she had also shot and killed a prior husband and used a similar defense. Did Terri Gilbert get away with murder . . . twice? Tom Jarriel reports on ABC News "20/20 Wednesday." NEW MEXICO VS. GILBERT [2 PARTS] (Producer - Howie Masters, PA - Minda Allarde)

"A LIFE OR DEATH LOTTERY" - Dr. Nancy Snyderman reports how some breast cancer sufferers are speaking out against a system in which a promising experimental treatment awaiting FDA approval was dispensed only to a small minority of sufferers by lottery. BREAST CANCER LOTTERY (Producer - Carol Berezuk, PA - Sylvia Johnson)

"GOGGLE THERAPY" - Can a pair of goggles heal common emotional disorders such as anxiety? Dr. Tim Johnson looks at a simple, inexpensive method that may be the key to unlocking the troubled mind. GOGGLES (Producer - Susan Wagner, PA - Jean Alter)

Friday, October 23, 1998

"AN ABUSE OF POWER" - Were military personnel who spoke up against what they say was waste, fraud and abuse in the armed services sent for psychiatric evaluation as retaliation? Sam Donaldson reports on ABC News "20/20 Friday." WHISTLEBLOWERS (Producer - John Sicheloff)

"NO MORE PICKY EATERS" - Perri Peltz examines the plight of parents of picky eaters and offers tips on enticing reluctant kids to eat more healthful, balanced meals. COPING WITH PICKY EATERS (Producer - Gwen Gowen, PA - Eric Strauss)

"GODSPEED, JOHN GLENN" - Hugh Downs speaks to legendary astronaut John Glenn, who will soon make his historic return voyage into orbit. Mr. Glenn tells "20/20" that scientists at the time of his first mission were unsure how his body would react to prolonged weightlessness. Ironically, he is being sent back to space now so that they can again monitor space travel's effects; this time on the body of a much older man. They intend to study how his physical reaction differs from those of his younger crew members. JOHN GLENN (Producer - Rob Wallace, PA - James Wang)

"GIVE ME A BREAK" - John Stossel takes a look at cranky judges, have they gotten too big for their benches? In this week's, Give Me A Break! G.M.A.B./PARKING TICKETS (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

Sunday, October 25, 1998

"OPRAH" - Diane Sawyer offers an intimate portrait of television talk show host and "Beloved" star Oprah Winfrey, in which she talks about growing up black in Mississippi and healing the wounds America's history of slavery left behind. OPRAH & BELOVED [2 PARTS] (Producer - Paul Mason, AP - Kristin Whiting, PA - Erica Starke)

"BOB AND MICHELLE" - Barbara Walters delivers an inspiring profile of Bob And Michelle Smithdas, a couple who met, fell and love and married without ever seeing each other or hearing each other's voices-- because both are deaf and blind. DEAF & BLIND (Producer - Martin Clancy, Andrea Amiel, PA - Stefanie Hirsh)

"THE WORLD'S RICHEST LITTLE GIRL" - Athina Roussel has been called the richest little girl in the world. After the death of her high-profile mother Christina Onassis, Athina, who was three years old at the time, became the sole heir of a colossal empire that included real estate in Paris, London and New York, art, jewelry, vested interest in 300 hundred companies worldwide, and a dozen shipping vessels. Today her estate is valued over a half a billion dollars. ABC News "20/20" co-anchor Diane Sawyer offers an exclusive look into the opulent, private world of Athina, now 13 years old; and examines her father Thierry Roussel's bitter struggle with the Greek trustees of her estate regarding the financial management of her fortune. ATHINA (2 PARTS) (Producer - Jessica Velmans, AP - Jeremy Goldstein, PA - Jason Rovou)

"CALLING DR. BROWN" - Dr. Joy Brown, America's top radio psychologist speaks to Sylvia Chase about a new way to look at life and love. DR. JOY BROWNE (Producer - Nola Safo, AP - Tom Goldstone)

"GIVE ME A BREAK!" - You've been warned not to eat a plastic sled or sleep while using your hairdryer. Are we a nation of morons? Or is something else behind those bizarre product warnings? Arnold Diaz's latest "Give Me A Break!" G.M.A.B./DISCLAIMERS (Producer - Glenn Ruppel)

Friday, October 30, 1998

"A MURDEROUS ENCOUNTER" - 18-year-old honor student and athlete Jeremy Strohmeier's brutal sexual assault and murder of 7-year-old Sherrice Iverson in a Los Vegas casino bathroom shocked the nation. Now for the first time, the Long Beach, California teen sentenced to life without parole and his parents tell their story and offer a warning to other families. Barbara Walters' exclusive interview airs on ABC News "20/20 Friday." TEEN KILLER (2 PARTS) (Producer - Joanna Breen, PA'S - Michelle Spahn, Minda Allarde, Eric Strauss)

"GREAT EXPECTATIONS" - Jane Swift wants to be Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts, and she wants to be a mother. What's wrong with that? What's Jane Swift done to make so many people mad? How is she different from any other career woman starting a family? Lynn Sherr with the firestorm of criticism over Jane Swift's candidacy. PREGNANCIES (Producer - Joanna Breen, AP - Reid Orvedahl)

"THE SAFEWAY SMILE" - If a pretty woman smiles and looks into a man's eyes... what does she mean? It's a question at the heart of a surprising battle in California, in of all places a supermarket. And all because Safeway decided to give customers better service. But as Bill Ritter reports, ordering employees to put on a happy face has left some people very unhappy indeed. SAFEWAY SMILE (Producer - Tom Berman, PA - Vivian Hernandez-Ortiz)

Wednesday, November 4, 1998

"THE IMPOSTER" - According to the FBI, Frederic Bourdin is the only person in U.S. history to have successfully impersonated a missing child. Last year, he took the identity of Nicholas Barclay, who disappeared from San Antonio, Texas, more than three years ago when he was 13 years old. The Frenchman successfully convinced police agencies, the U.S. government and even the child's family that he was Nicholas. Connie Chung delves into the labyrinthine world of Frederic Bourdin, a 24-year-old con man who spun elaborate tales about his identity on two continents; and how his outrageous charade caused anguish and pain to Barclay's family. IMPOSTER (2 PARTS) (Producer - Teri Whitcraft, AP - Dean Tsouvalas, PA - Marni Harriman)

"BLACK MEN AND THEIR MOTHERS" - An intimate look at the very special relationship between black men and their mothers. Lynn Sherr takes you on a rare visit into a private world, a place that often holds the key to a black man's success. BLACK MEN AND THEIR MOTHERS (Producer - Karen Saunders, PA - Deborah Runcie)

Friday, November 6, 1998

"A LICENSE TO BILL" - Some unscrupulous chiropractors are using children as pawns in a new get-rich-quick scheme that's costing taxpayers big bucks, according to authorities. Those authorities say chiropractors are recruiting children on Medicaid -- the government's medical program for the poor -- for unnecessary treatments, then charging Medicaid more than $100 per visit. Arnold Diaz takes an in-depth look at the new Medicaid scheme that's costing taxpayers millions. CHIROPRACTIC BUSING
(Producer - Rick Nelson, PA - James Wang)

"JUST ONE LOOK" - Do you trust your first impressions of people? Should you? The old wisdom says you shouldn't jump to conclusions. But scientists are making some remarkable discoveries that might change your mind. Would you like to have more faith in your gut feelings about other people? And would you like to have more control in how you yourself are judged? ABC science editor Michael Guillen is about to tell you how. FIRST IMPRESSIONS (Producer - Penny Fleming, AP - Sara Holmberg, PA - Mary Healy)

"THE HEART OF A CHAMPION" - Connie Chung's exclusive interview with gymnast Sang Lan. Last July, the world watched in horror as Chinese gymnast Sang Lan was rushed to the hospital after a tragic accident at the Goodwill Games. Thousands of miles from home, the girl who was once one of China's most promising athletes and one of gymnastics' brightest stars, lay in a hospital bed -- paralyzed from the neck down after a devastating accident during a simple vault exercise. In an exclusive interview with Connie Chung, the gymnast talks for the first time about the accident. CHINESE GYMNAST (Producer - Andrea Amiel, Bill McGowan, PA - James Wang)

Sunday, November 8, 1998

"BURYING THE TRUTH" - Correspondent Arnold Diaz has found that thousands of people nationwide are discovering too late that they or their loved ones have been victimized. Often, authorities say, the abuses are outright fraud committed by greedy cemetery owners. And millions of people could be easy prey for cemetery swindlers. CEMETERIES (Producer - Michael Pressman, PA - Michelle Spahn)

"MONEY MACHINE" - Correspondent Chris Wallace has a behind-the-scenes report on a very modern style of bank robbery: ATM fraud. Millions of Americans have come to rely on automatic teller cards as a simple and fast way to do their banking, but fraud from ATM banking is increasing dramatically. Authorities estimate that thieves are stealing 150 million dollars each year by compromising ATM cards. ATM FRAUD (Producer - Jackie Payson)

"A SECOND CHANCE" - Jo Isidori and John Franchini had both lost spouses to colon cancer and were in total despair. Until they reached into each other's hearts and found to their surprise and delight, a second chance. Bob Brown with a touching and unforgettable story. SECOND CHANCES (Producer - Joe Pfifferling, AP - Patricia Arico)

"MESSAGE TO MOM UPDATE" - Bob Brown updates the moving story of a dying mother's extraordinary gift for her daughter. Erin Kramp, recorded tapes for her little girl, Peyton. They are of a mother's wisdom, advice about boys, make-up, sex and love, and they are to be shared with Peyton as she grows up. MESSAGE TO MOM UPDATE (Producer - Ene Riisna, PA - Eric Strauss)

"TAKE THE BABY WITH YOU" - Tom Jarriel reports the heartbreaking story of infants who have died or suffered heat stroke and brain damage after being left alone in hot cars. CAR BABIES (Producer - Melissa Cornick, PA - Myrna Toledo)

"KISS AND NOT TELL" - An important -- but largely unreported -- misperception about the legal system is worrying legal experts across the country. In the wake of this year's scandal in Washington, many people may believe it's okay to lie under oath in a civil suit, even if you get caught. ABC News' Sam Donaldson talks to three women who did just that -- lied under oath in civil suits -- but paid the ultimate price, time in prison. PERJURY (Producer - Howard Rosenberg, PA - Yaro Velez)

"GIVE ME A BREAK!" - A lot of people are nuts about pigs. But how would you like a pet pig? John Stossel tells us of a woman who does, and she's in hog heaven. But now some pigheaded bureaucrats are trying to ruin everything, in this week's, "Give Me A Break!" G.M.A.B./PIGS (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

"HEY, BIG EATER" - In a report on crash dieting, correspondent Arnold Diaz talks to one professor of nutrition who suggests that there is a way to eat more food and still lose weight. Recent studies into the caloric density of foods have given rise to what's being called the "feel-full diet." FAD DIETS (Producer - Bonnie VanGilder, AP - Sara Holmberg)

Friday, November 13, 1998

"TOYS IN TROUBLE" - Can chemicals in the toys your baby chews be dangerous? Chief Investigative Correspondent Brian Ross with a report every parent should see. TOY STORY (Producer - Brenda Breslauer, AP'S - Simon Surowicz, Richard Aunyn)

"NO SWEAT" - Severe sweating, an embarrassing condition that affects more people than you think. Now, a startling new therapy is changing lives. Dr. Timothy Johnson with a medical breakthrough that is taking the worry out of being close. EXCESSIVE SWEATING (Producer - Susan Wagner, PA - Maura Riley)

"MARIAH" - Barbara Walters exclusive interview with superstar Mariah Carey. For the first time she talks about her private life and the startling video message in her music. MARIAH CAREY (Producer - Kayce Freed, PA - Stefanie Hirsh)

Sunday, November 15, 1998

"THE FUGITIVE" - In his first interview with an American journalist, Ira Einhorn tells Connie Chung how he went from being Philadelphia's most famous hippie to one of America's most wanted fugitives. And, for the first time on television, he answers questions about his role in the grisly murder of his girlfriend, whose body was found locked in a trunk inside his closet. IRA EINHORN (2 PARTS) (Producer - Jude Dratt, AP - Reid Orvedahl, PA - Gail Rosenberg)

"STILL A LEADING MAN" - Barbara Walters talks to Christopher Reeve about his triumphant return to the screen and his first leading role since the accident that left him unable to move from the shoulders down. Mr. Reeve stars in the upcoming remake of the Alfred Hitchcock classic, "Rear Window." REAR WINDOW (Producer - Katie Thomson, PA - Jennifer Fukui)

Wednesday, November 18, 1998

"JUVENILE JAILS" - In recent years, crimes committed by teenagers have become so violent, states have begun punishing young offenders in prisons, rather than relying on the old system of detention centers and training camps. This change in focus has fueled a growing debate among authorities and youth experts: Do juvenile jails scare kids straight or turn them into career criminals? JUVENILE JAILS (Producer - Robbie Gordon, AP - Sarah Walker, AP - Jason Rovou)

"PRAYING OFF THE POUNDS" - Deborah Roberts looks at a new spiritually based program to lose weight. The "Weigh Down Diet" incorporates prayer and bible study, and women on the diet are reporting positive results. PRAYING OFF THE POUNDS (Producer - Abby Rockmore, AP - Claudet Caravaggi)

"DIRTY MONEY" - Michael Guillen examines what kinds of germs are living on our paper money. He reveals the surprising results of lab tests performed on dollar bills from Chicago, New York City and Washington. DIRTY MONEY (Producer - Joy Ciarcia Levy)

Friday, November 20, 1998

"RECOVERY ROOMS" - Con artists are claiming thousands of victims in what may be one of the most ruthless telemarketing scams to date. It's called "recovery room" fraud and it targets the most vulnerable - people who have already lost thousands of dollars to traditional telemarketing scams. RECOVERY ROOMS (Producer - Susan Barnett, AP - Danielle Parker)

"BICKERING" - What happens to our bodies when we argue? Researchers are finding that arguing with others can actually do some harm to your health. Michael Guillen's report includes a look at a special "bickering workshop." BICKERING AND THE BODY (Producer - Steve Brand, AP - Sara Holmberg)

"VIATICAL SETTLEMENTS" - A growing number of people have offered up their life insurance policies for sale in a bizarre investment deal, and for the investors, it's like placing a bet on when someone will die. But, as Deborah Roberts reports, for some terminally ill patients, it's become a painful lesson in the real cost of living on borrowed time. VIATICAL SETTLEMENTS (Producer - Michael Salort, PA - Brian Hyland)

Sunday, November 22, 1998

Pre-empted

Wednesday, November 25, 1998

"KENNETH STARR" - Diane Sawyer interviews Ken Starr on the Bill Clinton/Monica Lewinsky debacle. KEN STARR (Producer - John Meyersohn, AP - Jason Rovou, PA - Susan Krinsky)

Friday, November 27, 1998

"SOUTH OF THE BORDER" - Elizabeth Vargas investigates what has happened to Americans traveling in Mexico and the risk to unsuspecting tourists. When this story was first broadcast in April, it was pretty shocking, and things have become even worse in Mexico and how you can't always rely on Uncle Sam. SOUTH OF THE BORDER (Producer - Joanna Breen, AP - Christina Romano)

"A MOVING JOURNEY" - They don't make them like Bill Porter anymore - one of the Country's last door-to-door salesmen. Doors have played a big part in Bill Porter's life. So many have been closed to him that he could have become a bitter man. But he has a secret key, forged by his steel will and a spirit that can't be broken. DOOR-TO-DOOR (Producer - Joe Pfifferling, AP - Kate Sheekey)

"A BAD MOVE" - Avoiding a bad move. Arnold Diaz investigates shady moving companies and speaks to consumers who did their homework and tried to hire reputable movers and still became victims. MOVERS (Producer - Greg Fisher, AP - Sandra Temko)

"TUCKET'S GIFT" - The dramatic story of two miracles. In one operating room, a deadly tumor is removed from a little boy's spine. In the other operating room, life-saving surgery on a little dog. What could the boy and the dog possibly have in common. Would you believe - the same doctor? PET GRIEF (Producer - Dean Irwin, AP - Sara Holmberg)

"THE DOCTORS GUYTON" - A remarkable family - 10 children - all doctors. What was it like to grow up together, and who was their inspiration? Dr. Timothy Johnson talks to a family that built dreams together. GUYTONS (Producer - Susan Wagner)

Wednesday, December 2, 1998

"LOST IN SPACE" - Chris Wallace reports on Al Coates, who was the government's top cop to protect U.S. secrets during American satellite launches in China, who says some American aerospace companies released sensitive information which helped the Chinese. Companies deny giving China technology secrets, but independent military experts say when someone like Al Coates makes these charges, it's significant. TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER (Producer - Kim Skeen, AP - Robin Brown)

"INSIDE THE MILITARY" - Parents send their kids to the Marine Military Academy in Harlingen, TX because the academy, also known as MMA, claims to provide a unique mix of military discipline and excellent academics. But a 20/20 investigation has uncovered serious allegations that there is another side to the MMA - allegations of violence, abuse and cover-up. MILITARY HAZING (Producer - Mary Vanhorn, AP - Tom Goldstone)

"FEEL GOOD ABOUT FAILURE" - Do you live in a world where competition is frowned upon, all people are treated equally and no one is allowed to fail? It's part of a nationwide effort to make all children feel special - feel good about themselves above all else - you see it everywhere - from the classroom to the ball field. Success without achievement, trophies without winners - some experts say, when these kids grow up, watch out. SELF ESTEEM (Producer - Carrie Cook, PA - Gail Rosenberg)

Friday, December 4, 1998

"WITHOUT A TRACE" - When U.S. diplomats were held hostage in Iran in 1979, when Americans were being grabbed off the streets of Beirut in the 1980's, their plight made international headlines. But today innocent people, including Americans, are still being kidnapped for ransom and the world barely takes notice. Four wives begin a long and lonely crusade to try to bring their husbands home. HOSTAGES (Producer - John Meyersohn, AP - Raney Aronson, PA - Erin Healy)

"MICHAEL J. FOX" - Barbara Walters interviews Michael J. Fox on his admission that he has had Parkinson's Disease for the past 7 years. MICHAEL J. FOX (Producer - Alan Goldberg, AP - Stefanie Hirsh)

Sunday, December 6, 1998

"THE FIGHT FOR MISTY" – Misty Copeland is a child prodigy caught in between her mother and her teachers about the direction of her career and her life. Misty's dream of becoming a prima ballerina may never come true because of a bitter feud between her mother and her dance teachers. BALLET CUSTODY (Producer - Barbara Baylor, AP - Susannah Shipman)

"MYSTERY AT SEA" – In 1945 a captain was court-martialed, blamed because his ship went down during WWII. Most men perished in hideous deaths at sea – attacked by sharks – dying of thirst. It was a terrible tragedy and almost forgotten. Recently, Hunter Scott set out to pursue the truth and restore the honor of the captain and his crew. MYSTERY AT SEA (Producer - Sam Fine, PA - Hillery Tullin)

"G.M.A.B. DAY GLOW HOUSES" – Wild, colorful houses - their owners think they look great, but a lot of people don't. Do towns and cities have the right to tell people how to live their lives - what to do with their property? John Stossel investigates. G.M.A.B. DAY GLOW HOUSES (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

"HOLLYWOOD'S UNLIKELY HERO" – Ever since a young black journalist named Mumia Abu Jamal was arrested on the scene of a vicious murder, passions have run high on all sides of the case. With time running out for Jamal, the struggle by his supporters to save him from execution has reached a critical stage. MUMIA (Producer - Harry Phillips, AP - Yaro Velez, AP - Phu Nguyen)

"SCAM SCHOOLS" – You could walk into a lot of government offices these days and think, how smart these people are - they all have advance degrees hanging on the wall which may help them qualify for pay raises, better jobs or those great pensions we hear about in the government. But what if some of those diplomas weren't worth the parchment they are written on? Brian Ross investigates the truth about scam school and scam degrees. DIPLOMA MILLS (Producer - Margaret Ebrahim, AP - Dave Rummel)

"DIAHANN CARROL" – This year singer, actress, entertainer Diahann Carrol became one of the hundreds of thousands of women diagnosed with a disease that has become a plaguing issue in 1998. 30 years ago she was a leader of another front-burner issue: race. In 1968 she played a key role in a television first - a new show starring a black women. DIAHANN CARROL (Producer - Holly Fine, Paul Fine, Robin Smith)

Friday, December 11, 1998

"THE WIVES' CRUSADE" – What could drive a group of ordinary housewives to take on the might of the U.S. Military? Nothing less than the mysterious deaths of their young husbands. They were experienced airmen - 10 of them killed when their military plane crashed off the coast of California. The widows wanted to know why the plane went down. It was a question that haunted them and led them to a bitter showdown with top airforce brass. C-130 (Producer - Janet Klein, PA - Brian Hale)

"FREE SPIRITS" – Hugh Downs travels out west to talk to a man with a rare gift – he can break wild horses without force, without abuse – simply connecting to their spirits. WILD HORSES (Producer - Rob Wallace, PA - Eric Strauss)

"G.M.A.B. - L.A. SUBWAY" – Officials in L.A. still believe the subway will turn out to be a great idea. Many believe it's way over the top. And guess who's paying for this billion dollar blunder? John Stossel tracking down tax dollars. G.M.A.B. - L.A. SUBWAY (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

Sunday, December 13, 1998

"DANGEROUS HOBOS" – A national mystery - dozens of people murdered along the rail road tracks of America. Police say they're a vicious gang of hobos – almost impossible to track. John Quinones tracks a loose and possibly deadly band of loners. FREIGHT TRAINS (Producer - Peter Klein, PA - Jean Alter)

"THE AMERICAN NIGHTMARE" – There is a growing number of entrepreneurs around the country who claim they know how to get homes for people who have little money or bad credit ratings. All you have to do is attend one of their seminars, for a small fee. In some cases, that's just the bait - designed to hook you with half truths and empty promises. HOUSING SEMINARS (Producer - Carole Radziwill, PA - Sandra Tempko)

"SATURDAYS WITH LUCY" - For half a century Lucy the hairdresser has lived and worked in the same, little house. Her tools and her customers aging together - faithful to the end. LUCY THE HAIRDRESSER (Producer - Nee Rinse, PA - Deborah Runic)
